WESTERN YEW

OWNER:
Robin Lakenes

ABOUT THE BOAT:
15hp engine
Made of yellow cedar and oak ribs
Inside cabins and decks are varnished teak and mahogany

DESIGN:
Built in 1946 in North Vancouver by Oliver Shipyard
Designed by Milton Veale for Carl Johnson.

HISTORY:
Originally built to be a yacht. When the Forest Service purchased it, they painted it grey - over the beautiful varnished teak! They called it a “Ranger” boat.

TIDBIT:

The first Forest Ranger to run her - Louie Lorentsen (now 96 years old) - still enjoys seeing his old vessel when the current owners visit him on Salt Spring Island!
