

LADY JAYNE

OWNER:

Nick Loenen

ABOUT THE BOAT:

Dragon class sailboat designed by Norwegian Johan Anker in 1928. Wood – constructed at Lee Bay, Pender Harbour by her owner between 2000 – 2006 with generous advice provided by the late Tom Barker, Zorro Szabados and Bob Fielding.

DESIGN:

Cold-moulded hull over white oak keelson and ribs, four layers of African mahogany planks run horizontally and mahogany plywood strips run diagonally. 6 coats of epoxy and 10 coats of Inter-lux Golden Spar varnish.

Sitka spruce mast is set in a pulpit on the deck to allow lowering for trailering. Seats made from Western Maple harvested at Lee Bay. Cockpit enlarged by a foot to allow installation of inboard 5 HP Honda engine.

TIDBIT:

Won division title in the 2009 Malaspina Regatta; won Judge's Overall at the 2008 Sunshine Coast Wooden Boat Festival.

*Pender
Harbour
Spirit*