

SEA GUARD

OWNER:

Don McKenzie
Purchased in 2000, berthed in Sechelt

ABOUT THE BOAT:

43' wood work boat (tug); 12' beam, built in Lund and launched in 1950. D1300 Cat 110 HP engine.

DESIGN:

Commissioned by a family who ran a business towing logs from Texada and Thormanby Islands.

Construction: mainly fir and gumwood. On display: the hard hat diving gear and electronics used in modern day underwater archeology.

IN THE CABIN:

3 bunks, head and galley

TIDBIT:

The Sea Guard is now a diving tender for underwater archeology expeditions!

*Pender
Harbour
Spirit*

